Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

My background in finance and international business have given me a unique perspective to the global community and I feel that it can be effectively applied to the local community. There is a necessary give and take involved in all negotiations and it will definitely be needed in something as important as drawing-up political boundaries in such a diverse city as Austin.

I negotiate contracts and leases for small businesses as well as Fortune 1000 companies as part of my job as a founder of my commercial real estate firm. It is of the utmost importance that every group in Austin feels that they have an equal and fair voice in their community and I feel that as a resident of Austin for 30 years I am as qualified as any one.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

I have lived and worked at both ends of the spectrum in Austin. Having bar tended and waited tables during college to founding my own international real estate company, I have been exposed to a variety of the smaller communities that make up Austin and I have a deep appreciation of them all.

Growing up, I lived in the then new Northwest Hills. In college I lived in various parts of east and south Austin. As an adult and a business owner, I live in Westover Hills.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

My family is and has been scattered all across Austin and we all have our favorite parts of this great city.

Working on 6th Street as a bartender while in college was like a Right of Passage for me. Living close to the action was important to me at the time and I lived downtown, east of the highway, and south Austin. I learned of all the best restaurants that a lot of Austin didn't get to recognize until it became hip to be in on the goings on of east or south Austin. I met the people who live and work there and cherish their friendship.

I grew up, and now live in the northwest part of town, and love the area for its hills and for its people. I have seen the area grow from an unpaved Spicewood Springs Rd. and a working rock quarry on Far West Blvd. to the melting-pot of different cultures it has become.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I have lived in Austin for a total of 30 years. I spent my early childhood here and have had family here since the late 60's. I have lived all over the country and been fortunate enough to have traveled the world. When it was time to settle down, get an education and choose a place to set down roots, I chose Austin.

I am proud to call Austin "HOME" and want to be part of shaping its future.
